

Bend it like Enwere

Henry Enwere, a student at the South West Regional College of TAFE has won the Men's Premier Reserves Player of the Year medal and trophy for his contribution to the Dayellup Football Club in 2009. The fact that Henry joined the club just four months ago and has the distinction of being one of the highest goal scorers for the team, makes this achievement even more remarkable.

Describing his response to being presented with this prestigious award, Henry summed it up as "An overwhelming experience. It was a privilege to have been part of this team and to have been able to use my talents and contribute to the success of the Dayellup Football Club to get the result we did," he said.

Henry's passion for the sport has been nurtured from his childhood and the gift of a football as a lively four year old sparked and supported his enduring enthusiasm for the game. His sense of fulfilment comes from the reward of using his talents to make a positive impact on the lives of others which he achieves not only through his efforts on the sports field but also through his talents as a musician, singer, song writer and producer.

Originally from Nigeria, Henry is an international student who is currently completing a Certificate in Surveying. His future plans include completing the Diploma of Surveying and then seeking employment in the mining industry.

